

The Staff Sergeant Kyu H. Chay Memorial Foundation

Mission Statement and Vision

The mission of the Staff Sergeant Kyu H. Chay Memorial Foundation is to honor the memory and sacrifice of Staff Sgt. Kyu H. Chay through the granting of scholarships to individuals and organizations who embody the spirit of patriotism and community.

About the Foundation

The foundation has been established to honor the memory of Staff Sgt. Kyu H. Chay and his service to America. The foundation will promote the values that he and many other members of the US armed forces fought to preserve. These values include community, patriotism, freedom, peace, and sacrifice for the next generation. The money has been donated by the family and friends of Staff Sgt. Kyu H. Chay. The grants are given with no strings attached.

Each year, the foundation hopes to grant up to [?] students with grants of $ [?], for a total of $2,000⁺⁺. These amounts may vary year to year. The foundation was established by Sam Chay, father of Staff Sgt. Kyu H. Chay.

Who can apply?

The foundation will accept applications from students recommended through these organizations. These organizations are all connected to Staff Sgt. Kyu Chay in a meaningful way.

Brooklyn Law School

Westchester Korean-American Association

Chay Youth Center – Fort Bragg, North Carolina

Chappaqua EMT/Fire Department

Horace Greeley Scholarship Fund

Board members of the foundation will review all applications and decide on the student to be awarded the grant.